Attached is a draft letter to Mr. Schnapper which has been approved by OGC. As I mentioned on the phone, since this is to a citizen rather than to Congress, I suggest one of the people in your office sign it. Please send me a copy, though, of the signed response and I will get it to Senator Bayh's office.

Dear Mr. Schnapper:

Senator Bayh's office has referred to us your request for a list of books by current or former CIA officials which have been cleared for publication by CIA in the past few years.

I regret that we cannot comply with this request. This matter is quite pertinent to the suit being brought against Mr. Snapp and it would, therefore, be inappropriate for us to furnish such a list outside of court proceedings.

A copy of this letter is being sent to Senator Bayh.

Dear Gentlemen:

I have received the attached letter requesting information about Central Intelligence Agency-approved books that have been published recently.

If there is any way you can accomodate this request, I would greatly appreciate it.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Birch Bayh
United States Senator

Dear Sir:

I'd greatly appreciate a list of books by current or former CIA officials that have been cleared by the agency in the last few years. This matter is discussed in an article I'm writing about the suit against Frank Snepp.

Sincerely,

M. B. Schnapper
